

Railsplitter Obituary

Ronald "Ron" E. Moe

I regret to inform you that LTC Ron Moe, who had recently transitioned to hospice care, passed away on Sunday, December 7th. For more details, you can visit his obituary here:

Ron's contributions to our organization's website were invaluable. His creativity and dedication greatly enhanced our reach to military followers. In light of his significant contributions, I kindly request that my fellow Railsplitters, especially the Board of Directors, attend his funeral services. Let us gather at the funeral home at 2:30 pm to personally express our gratitude to his wife.

Ron served as the senior Asst G-1 working for Colonel James Detjen in the mid to late 70's. In his capacity, he was responsible for overseeing the work of the other Asst G-1 Major Steve Kelly, the staff SGM, SGM Henry Spanley , and other staff members. He was a studious man just meant for the type of work required, very affable, thorough, and easy to talk to. He was also responsible for the various personnel reports, ensuring that the subordinate units met established deadlines, and ensuring that those and other personnel related reports were submitted to 84th Division Headquarters. He maintained close contact with the
